

Chapter 6 quiz, November 11, 2011. Not to be graded. 10 minutes.

Suppose $X \sim \text{Binom}(n, r)$, where r is unknown. Given one random sample, X , from this distribution, show (meaning, prove) that X/n is an unbiased estimator of r . Give an estimator for the standard error of this estimator.